Sgt.

Lt. MASON

17 December 1945

The subject transported by bicycle and by food a very considerable number of allied evaders who had been shot down in the area near the German border to the east of the Ijsel river. Several of these he picked up on the border itself near the community of Bocholt in Germany. He had good contact addresses with other underground workers in Lichtenvoorde and in the vicinity of Aalten and it is notable that most of those whom he lists as having rendered assistance to, evaded successfully. In addition to transporting he likewise turned his house over to evaders upon a number of occassions and they stayed with him from 5 to 30 days. Names of evaders whom he assisted, where known, are here given.

Additional report on Mr. H. J. A. Leemreize. These are the cases of evaders in which Mr. H. J. A. Leemreize participated:

1. Bocholt - December 1943. He received news that there were American pilots near Bocholt on the border. He bicycled with Ruysendael (killed by Germans) to the border and picked up nine pilots. He brought them by foot to Wichers (killed) at Dahle. (Distance Bocholt to Dahle about 10 kilometers) Afterwards, with another man, Kees Glundert (killed), he brought these pilots to the station at Varsseveld (distance Dahle to Varsseveld about 15 kilometers). Glundert then brought the pilots alone to Zundert. Names of pilots unknown. All the helpers of Mr. Leemreize were killed. probably not true

2. Twice Mr. Leemreize received pilots from Mr. W. Helmink at Varsseveld. The first time, two pilots on 5 January 1944. Another one a little later. All three of these pilots he brought to Mr. Lelifelt at Lichtenvoorde. Then the next day he brought them from Lichtenvoorde to the train station which is about five kilometers away, together with J. Ter Haar. 3 2 o.k.

3. Mr. Leemreize received about ten pilots on four occasions at a church yard near Aalten from Mr. Wikkering or Mr. Ket. This happened in February and March 1944. All these pilots he brought to Mr. Lelifelt at Lichtenvoorde (seven kilometers). Once it was a bunch of four pilots together. He also brought all of them from Mr. Lelifelt to the station (five kilometers). 5 5 o.k.

4. 7 January 1944, he received one pilot from Mr. Schuurman. He brought this man to Mr. Lelifelt and afterwards from Mr. Lelifelt to the station. Distance involved - six kilometers. 1 1 o.K.

5. In the summer of 1944, he received two pilots from Mr. Donsselaer. He transported them from Groenlo to Mr. Orriens at Lichtenvoorde (distance 12 kilometers) by foot.

6. In January 1945, he received two pilots from Mr. Mennink at Lichtenvoorde. Mr. Leemreize kept them at his own house for three weeks. He then brought them with two helpers to Mr. Ter Lindert at Aalten (8 kilometers). These pilots were turned over to the British at the liberation. 11 checked o.K. 2

7. He transported two Yugoslavian evaders, probably RAF, for one kilometer.

AAN: Den Heer H.J.A. Leemreize,

Lichtenvoorde.

WASSENAAR, 8 Februari 1946.

Op Uw verzoek doe ik U hierbij een aantal blanco vragenlijsten toekomen, terwijl ik U dank voor de mij reeds gezondene.

Wat betreft Uw opmerking, of zij, die een dergelijke lijst hebben ingevuld, nog iets nadere hooren, moge ik U het volgende mededeelen. Het is de bedoeling van dit bureau om na onderzoek van de hulp, welke tijdens de bezetting aan geallieerd personeel is verleend de Amerikaansche Regeering te adviseeren omtrent de wijze, waarop zij van hare erkenning zal doen blijken, hetzij in de vorm van een onderscheiding, hetzij op andere wijze. Uiteraard is een dergelijk blijk eerst veel later en in ieder geval nadat het onderzoek volledig afgewikkeld is te verwachten.

Het is eigenlijk nimmer de opdracht van dit bureau geweest om giften te geven, doch toen - vooral in den beginne - de officieren belast met het onderzoek zagen, dat er aan veel dingen behoefte was en dat het langs niet officieele weg mogelijk was hier eenigszins aan tegemoet te komen, is het beschikbare uitgedeeld, waarbij niet gewacht is totdat het niet meer noodig zou kunnen zijn. Er is thans een einde aan deze dingen gekomen ook al doordat een brand in de door de Haagsche Politie bewaakte opslagplaats de rest vernietigd heeft. In ieder geval heeft de plaats gevonden uitreiking niets te maken met een officieele erkenning van de zijde der Amerikaansche Regeering, die veel later zal komen.

Ik hoop U hiermede in het kort eenigszins nader ingelicht te hebben.

The subject transported by bicycle and by food a very considerable number of allied evaders who had been shot down in the area near the German border to the east of the Ijsel river. Several of these he picked up on the border itself near the community of Bocholt in Germany. He had good contact addresses with other underground workers in Lichtenvoorde and in the vicinity of Aalten and it is notable that most of those whom he lists as having rendered assistance to, evaded successfully. In addition to transporting he likewise turned his house over to evaders upon a number of occassions and they stayed with him from 5 to 30 days. Names of evaders whom he assisted, where known, are here given.

CITATION FOR MEDAL OF FREEDOM

Hendrik J. A. Leemreize, Dutch Civilian, fought most courageously for the cause of liberty by rendering aid of exceptional importance to members of the American and British armed forces who were evading capture in the enemy-occupied countries of Europe. The courage, bravery, and exceptional devotion to the common cause of freedom displayed by this person in undertaking such hazardous duties, knowing the price to be paid if apprehended, were a definite contributing factor to the termination of hostilities in this theater, meriting the highest degree of praise.
